

Enter Humbly

Imagine what it was like for the disciples on their way that day as they passed near the Mount of Olives on their approach to Jerusalem. They knew there was danger, but still they followed Jesus.

What would you do if you had been there when Jesus stopped and said, "There is something I want you to do. Go into the village just ahead, and immediately as you enter, you will find a colt that has never been ridden tied there. Untie it and bring it back here. If anyone asks why you are doing this, just tell them the Lord needs it and will send it back."

The disciples did as instructed and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" They told them what Jesus had said and they allowed them to take it.

When they got back to where Jesus was, they threw their cloaks on the colt to make a seat for Jesus. They started out for the Jerusalem gate, and as they passed by, others saw what was happening. Many of them spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

"Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Imagine you hear Jesus saying to you,

"There is something I want you to do."

What is it? Does it have anything to do with peace?
